Chronology of Terrorism—1984

[redacted]

16-17 October

FPMR Bombing Campaign
In Santiago, the Manuel Rodriguez Patriotic Front (FPMR) claimed credit for a series of bombings of powerlines, banks, and various municipal and private buildings. In Rancugua and Talca, bombs caused extensive damage to the Chilean–North American Cultural Institute and the Chilean Agricultural Center. Three persons were injured, and eight regions of the country were blacked out for several hours.
